The Honorable Bob Stump
Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congressman Stump:

As you may recall, immediately following our breakfast last week, the DCI presented the first awards to an outstanding group of intelligence professionals under our Exceptional Collector Program. We are very pleased with this low-cost program, that may pay big dividends in terms of our continuing efforts to improve the quality of our national intelligence. I thought you might be interested in some thoughts the DCI had about the recipients of these awards, a copy of which is enclosed.

Sincerely,

STAT
